WORK EXPERIENCE

Deloitte   Chicago, IL
Consulting Summer Scholar   June 2025 - August 2025

- Designed a synthetic FR Y-14M loan dataset to support scenario modeling and testing for a top financial institution, enabling data-driven insights for risk and compliance strategy.
- Automated data-generation workflows in Python and Excel, reducing turnaround time by over 70% and creating a scalable foundation for future analytics initiatives.
- Collaborated with senior consultants to craft a proposal for a leading fintech, outlining a data-integrity and compliance-improvement strategy supported by a 10-week roadmap and agile delivery model that enhanced operational efficiency and control design.

Risk & Financial Advisory Intern   June 2024 - August 2024

- Researched and presented data inventory insights to senior executives, analyzing regulatory trends (GDPR, CCPA) and industry risk ($10B in fines, 5% fraud loss) to help shape Deloitte's client-facing Point of View (POV).
- Proposed a data inventory framework leveraging AI/ML to address compliance gaps and operational inefficiencies, supported by industry benchmarks ($12.9M in losses, 40% storage cost reduction).
- Identified organization-wide challenges in data ownership, quality, and legacy systems, recommending scalable governance solutions to improve data transparency and operational control.

Schneider Electric   Atlanta, GA
Data Analyst Intern   June 2023 - August 2023

- Built and delivered 10 Tableau dashboards analyzing North American sales KPIs, directly informing executive-level strategic decisions and contributing to growth initiatives across multiple business units.
- Performed comparative analysis between Tableau and Excel, presenting findings to senior executives and directly influencing the adoption of Excel as the primary visualization tool across the Digital Power division, streamlining internal reporting process.
- Analyzed datasets of 7,500+ records to generate insights and actionable recommendations, influencing executive decisions on product enhancement and customer experience strategies.
